THE

Catholic National Series.

BY RT. REV. RICHARD GILMOUR, D.D.,

Bishop of Cleveland.

FIVE years ago, the Right Rev. Author, then Professor at Mt. St. Mary's Seminary, Cincinnati, having just finished his BIBLE HISTORY, consented to prepare a set of Readers for the publishers. The plan was decided on, and as the lessons progressed, illustrations for them were designed and engraved by the best artists in this line.

When the Rev. Author was elevated to the dignity of a Bishop, the burden of his new position, and the regulation of his diocese, which had been without a bishop for a long time, temporarily suspended work on the books. Much had already been done, however, and the Right Rev. Author was so convinced of the need of a first-class series of school-books, and had always felt such a deep interest in whatever related to education, that he declared himself not only willing, but anxious, to finish his work as soon as time would permit.

The publishers confidently hoped to issue at least four Readers this year, in time for the opening of the schools, but have been unavoidably prevented from doing so. The First Reader is now ready, and matters are progressing so that the publishers believe they can promise the Second, Third, and Fourth Readers by the end of this year. The Fifth Reader will follow as soon as possible.

The Right Rev. Author and the publishers have been anxious to see Catholic school-books brought to the same high standard which non-Catholic school-books occupy in this country, in regard to the plan and system, as well as the mechanical execution. The few specimen pages reprinted here will give an idea of the class of illustration, whilst the name of the author alone, is sufficient proof that a true and warm Catholic tone and feeling will be found throughout the series.

The publishers would ask as a favor from such schools as intend changing their books, that they would wait until they have examined the CATHOLIC NATIONAL SERIES, if they can possibly do so without disadvantage. Special terms will be given for introduction.

To the many friends who have so patiently and kindly waited, during the last two or three years, for the appearance of the CATHOLIC NATIONAL SERIES, the publishers beg to return their sincere thanks, and whilst they regret that they can not give them the whole series as early as they would have liked to, will endeavor, in some part, to make up for the delay by the quality of the books.

LESSON XXX.

who	save	keep	Christ
true	kiss	weep	heart
take	hand	made	might make	sand	cross	should

May I take this cross in my hand? Yes, and you may kiss it too.

My child, can you tell who died on the cross?

Oh! yes; it was Christ, the Son of God. He was made man for us and died, that He might save us from sin and hell.

We should, then, love God with all our heart, and try to keep His law in all things.

We give an extra discount for first introduction.

A Copy will be sent free by mail to parties who intend to introduce the book into their schools.
